“Soldiers Needed”
Part II

“Earnest men and women are needed, who will go to God and with strong crying and tears plead for the souls that are on the brink of ruin.

There can be no harvest without seed sowing, no result without effort. Abraham was called to go forth from his home, a light bearer to the heathen. And without questioning, he obeyed. “He went out, not knowing whither he went,” Heb. 11:8}.

So today God’s servants are to go where He calls, trusting Him to guide them and give them success in their work,¹ {Emphasis supplied}.

What does this mean for us?

Obvious Signs Do Tell The Season

Conventional wars are not won by careless, disorganized leaders, but by disciplined, organized, military prowess! As we engage in Spiritual warfare we need the guidance of God to direct our hearts and minds to an organized, strategical front. This requires a disciplined response to the Holy Spirit's guidance!

“Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave whither thou goest.” Ecc. 9:10

We should be reminded every day of how Moses, Joseph, David, Daniel, and many other champions for God's cause remained faithful to their calling despite Satan's overwhelming attacks, and persecution from the powers that be!

The one thing they all had in common was a Spiritual life endowed with discipline, and order mandated by God Himself, for His kingdom! They all had spiritual tenacity-they were not quitters-regardless of the odds they faced!

When we, God's remnant, "Go" out in God's mission fields to share the "Everlasting Gospel" with others we will need an orderly life, and spiritual discipline like those who went on before us.

Abraham went not knowing where he was going, but followed God's lead to share His Word with the unconverted. Quitting is never an option for His servants, until Jesus comes or we are laid to rest, whichever comes first!

A life of Dedication

CNN News: Monday, May 16, 2016

Jane Little, a dedicated woman who held the record for the longest tenure with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra collapses and dies at the age of 87 years old on Sunday May 15, 2016 while performing.

She began playing double bass in 1945 with the Atlanta Youth Orchestra as a charter member at the age of 16, after 2 years of instruction in High School, and played for 71 consecutive years.

She played under all four of Atlanta's Symphony Orchestras Music directors. "The Atlanta Symphony Orchestra was truly blessed to have Jane as part of the family for the past 71 years and she will be missed-stated a member of the orchestra.”

“Little said on WABE radio in Atlanta that she decided to pick up the bass on a trip to the music store with her father. “There it is in the window, “I am playing the bass, Little said to her father. “I can’t believe you’re going to play that big thing,” he responded.

“It’s a hard life, but if you work hard enough, and love it enough, you’ll do it,” she said. A Special thanks to Brother R. B. for making this inspiring story known to TPT.

Friends, our heavenly Father wants selfless gospel workers who will work hard for His kingdom. Workers who have a passion for winning souls. Workers who will go out as disciplined soldiers, two by two regardless of the obstacles facing them.

Jesus never said it would be easy, but He did promise to give us the strength needed to partner with Him while finishing the work.

“But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint.” Isaiah 40:31
